Election Regulation Act.

Yesterday, the Governor sent down to the House a bill of amendments to the Election Regulation Act, 1871. It is called "The Election Regulation Act, 1871," and contains fifteen clauses, covering fifteen pages of closely printed matter. Mr. Attorney General Phillips has evidently been a busy time in preparing this bill, and what is more, he has done so in a very judicious manner. The bill is a very good one, and it is to be hoped that it will be passed by the House without any amendments. It is a very good bill, and it is to be hoped that it will be passed by the House without any amendments. It is a very good bill, and it is to be hoped that it will be passed by the House without any amendments.

Sequel to Members Qualification.

The question of compelling members of the next assembly to possess a freehold, free from incumbrances, worth $1500, or personal property worth $2000, began to create some considerable excitement, yesterday, and members were carefully watching the result. A hot debate was expected, and the result was deemed doubtful, except the Governor would concede with the majority of representative members. Happily, however, when Council resolved itself in Committee of the Whole to consider the question, Dr. Carroll came forward and announced, amid some considerable applause, that it was his intention to withdraw the motion. In our opinion he did well, for we cannot see from all directions that the utility or necessity of a property qualification is so much as it was at the time of its introduction. It is a very good bill, and it is to be hoped that it will be passed by the House without any amendments.

Granddaddyism.

Emerson says that there is one great virtue that is characteristic of the English more than of any other people, that is, their intense love of truth. We fear, however, that if he had read the leading article in our Monday's edition, and then the leader in our local contemporary, yesterday, he would have concluded that the Canadian did not represent Englishmen, but, in all probability, the ancient Greeks. For, possibly, more unblinking attempt to palm off knowledge, a deliberate misrepresentation for the sake of a few lines of space, we are charged with calling "Granddaddyism" a "North American Canadianism." If any one is in question, they will discover that neither one nor the other of the above quotations are to be found in the above quotations. One is a very good one, and the other is a very good one. One is a very good one, and the other is a very good one. One is a very good one, and the other is a very good one.

Dominion Mail Summary.

By the arrival of the small Eastern mail by the ship on Monday evening, we have published the following summary of news: The Quebec Government have appointed emigration agents to France and Belgium. There is abundance of money in the financial market of Montreal, and numerous agencies are being established there by English capitalists. The citizens of Montreal, on the higher grounds—towards the mountains—have to sell snow, and by other contrivances obtain the necessary quantity of water for daily use. The supply from the water works having failed owing to the failure of the pumping apparatus. Mr. Frank Smith of Toronto, Hon. E. Perry of Coburg, and Mr. E. R. Churchill of Kingston, N. S., are gazetted Senators for the Dominion. Robert Lemoine, now Deputy Clerk and Clerk Assistant of the Senate of Canada, was gazetted Clerk of the Senate of Canada, and John Rensselaer Taylor, superintending the Dominion for the month ending the 31st January, 1871, amounted to $1,043,515.42 and expenditure to $1,235,072. The Claims of New Brunswick upon the Dominion for using the gas at St. John are, it is reported to be taken under consideration by the Ottawa Government. Smallpox of an unusually infectious character, is spreading rapidly in St. John, N. B., but has not been attended by any consequences. The Board of Health of the city is making due exertions to prevent the spread of the disease, and to provide proper attention to the already attacked. A bill has been introduced in the Nova Scotia Assembly to adopt a method for deciding election petitions similar to that now obtaining in England—trial before judges instead of by a committee of the House. The Government of Ontario have included in the Estimates a sum of one thousand dollars for the Ontario Volunteers who are to proceed to Wladimir in the course of this summer. Perhaps this is very liberal, coming from such a careful Government, but it is very small when the estimated cost of sending the team is considered. The committee charged with the arrangement of the expedition, which will be necessary to cover all the expenses, Mr. Cayley, representative in the House of Commons for Benharrois, has been committed to prison in Montreal in consequence of a charge of assault on a woman.
